

BEAUTY PRODUCTS AND SENTIMENT ANALYSIS

Phasiri Honsa

PROBLEM STATEMENT

The beauty market is highly competitive, with products ranging from budget-friendly options to premium-priced luxury items. Understanding consumer engagement with products across different price tiers is crucial for brands to position themselves effectively.

POTENTIAL AUDIENCE

A large cosmetic company is looking to launch a sister brand into the beauty industry.

HYPOTHESIS

Mid-priced personal care products receive a higher volume of reviews compared to premium or budget-priced alternatives, driven by a perceived balance between affordability and quality.

ASSUMPTIONS

- Mid-priced Products attract high engagements
- Engagement drives sales
- Historical Trends are predictive
- Consumer behavior are consistent

APPROACH

DATA CLEANING

- clean dataset
- Handle missing values, duplicate and outliers
- Merging Datasets

Tools: Python

DATA ANALYSIS

- Identify top-rated and most reviewed products and categories (skincare moisturizer, cosmetics)
- Prediction of customer engagement based on product features
- Identify overlooked segments or products
- Provide visualizations to support the findings

Tool: Python, SQL, Tableau, PowerBI

GOALS AND CRITERIA FOR SUCCESS

DATA-DRIVEN PRODUCT SELECTION

Criteria for success:

Identification of 5-7 high
demand product types
with strong customer
engagement.

MOST SUITABLE PRICING STRATEGY

Criteria for success:

Defining the price ranges
and finding the optimal price between quality and
affordability.

MAXIMIZE CUSTOMER ENGAGEMENT

Criteria for success:

Identification of engagement-boosting features.

ACTIONABLE RECOMMENDATIONS

Criteria for success:

Provide data-supported strategies for the potential products launch.

RECOMMENDATIONS AND FINDINGS

MAKEUP AND SKINCARE WOULD BE THE MOST SUITABLE CATEGORIES

- Lip products such as gloss or tints
- Hydrating and anti-aging products
- Include trending ingredients such as anti-aging, hydration and vegan

MOST SUITABLE PRICING IS IN THE MIDDLE RANGE

The best price range for makeup is anywhere between $15 and $57. For skincare, $25 to $100 would be among the most acceptable pricing

- Digital Marketing:
Celebrities/influencer
endorsement
- Use social Media Platforms to showcase the products
- Use data to analyze customer
preference, engagement to make product adjustments

CREATE BRAND IDENTITY AND PARTNERSHIP

- Create a Brand identity
such as being a clean
beauty brand
- Partner with online beauty
retailer such as Sephora

DIFFICULTIES

- Data limitation
- Engagement metrics may not translate well
- Consumer behavior changes
- No direct sales data
